Brand New Book  Print on Demand .On August 1, 2012, we issued a report on the Federal Aviation Administration's (FAA) implementation of near-term capabilities for the Next Generation Air Transportation System (NextGen). Our audit focused on FAA's actions in response to recommendations from a government-industry Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics (RTCA) task force on accelerating NextGen deployment, especially FAA's metroplex initiative to improve airspace efficiency at large, congested metropolitan airports. We found that while FAA quickly incorporated the task force's recommendations into its NextGen strategic plans and budgets, its efforts are delayed in key areas, including its critical metroplex initiative. Moreover, industry is concerned that the initiative does not yet include other related task force recommendations, such as better managing surface operations, and may not deliver all desired benefits.

It is one of my personal favorite publications. Indeed, it actually performs, still an amazing and interesting literature. It has been printed in an exceptionally easy way which is merely soon after I finished reading this book where it really altered me, changed the way I believe.

Very helpful to all classes of folks. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. You can expect to like just how the blogger created this PDF.
