Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from God Revealing His Truth, Vol. 2: Through His Son The Westminster Religious Education Textbooks aim to unify the educational program of the individual church by furnishing a graded course of study suitable for Sunday-school classes, week-day church school classes, and expressional organizations. The lessons are so constructed as to make the Sunday sessions largely devotional and the week-day sessions largely informational. Suggestions are given for an expressional meeting in which pupils discuss the application of the truths they have learned to their own life problems. In these meetings they also plan for various forms of Christian service without which mere information and formal devotion are devoid of any great religious value. Churches planning to use these textbooks will need to provide for one hour of religious instruction on week days in addition to their usual program. In the Primary, Junior, and Intermediate departments of the Sunday school, the Westminster Textbooks will replace the lesson materials heretofore in use. The expressional work of the Westminster Textbooks will supplant the usual topics in the Junior and Intermediate Christian Endeavor societies, or new expressional organizations will be formed to have charge of this phase of the educational task of the church. In carrying out the plan it is desirable that, so far as possible, the same teachers be in charge in all three sessions of the church school. Where this is not possible, there should be one efficient supervisory agency and an efficient superintendent for the whole program.
