Not illustrated. 1893 Excerpt: . credit was always unquestioned and people accepted work from them and took their paper as they would gold in liquidation of large bills. It is impossible yet to say how widespread the disaster is. Popular Series No. 35. Price, 25c. The refusal to supply the book On the Altar of Mammon by the American News Co., seems to have stimulated its sale, as the publisher, W. D. Rowland, New York, reports a constantly increasing demand. The Columbian cross is the best puzzle and brain racking device that has appeared for many months. Its growing popularity is easily accounted for after a few minutes working to find the solution. It seems very simple, but it is a corker as the boys say. Mr. D. C. Pratt, 20 Fulton St., New York city, is the inventor. A GOOD SCHEME ON PAPER. The wholesale dealers of New York are just now interested in a new business scheme known as the New York Merchants Discount Company. The projectors of this company have issued a circular in which they explain the scheme at length. We are indebted to Fabrics, Fancy Foods and Notions for the following explanation of its workings. The present prevailing method employed by manufacturers and wholesalers is to formulate and publish a list of prices more or less in excess of the prices at which they will sell their goods for spot cash, subject to the scale of discounts or reductions to meet the abilities of those who...
