Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Facts and Arguments Against the Election of General Cass, Respectfully Addressed to the Whigs and Democrats of All the Free States About the wrong of slavery in the abstract, I will waste no argument; it being a subject on which, in this age of light, the enlightened and disinterested cannot disagree. I urge nothing against the rights over slavery retained by the Old Thirteen States, and by Kentucky and Texas; rights which, however condemned by reason and Revelation, and by all human experience, and however improperly extorted by some of those States, and unwisely yielded by the rest, are securely anchored by the Federal Constitution. But because unhallowed cupidity has covered too much by Constitutional compromises, and because timidity or temporary interests have permitted their extension far beyond their original ground, the South must not be permitted to extend them indefinitely, and thus make the Union an instrument of evil. A government established for the protection of human rights, must not be perverted to hewing them down. Slavery, which never should have been carried beyond...
